

Master of Arts (M.A. History)

From the Academic Year 2002-2003, Semester system is introduced in M.A. History Programme. In its curriculum the department has chosen the socio-cultural history of India as its major thrust area of study. Scheme of papers is given below semester-wise.

I- Semester

Paper I	Ancient Civilizations
Paper II	Socio-Cultural History of India Up to 7 th Century A.D.
Paper III	History of Modern Europe (1453-1789)
Paper IV	History of Andhradesha Up to 1000 A.D.
Paper V	Socio-Cultural History of India from 8 th Century to 1526 A.D.

II-Semester

Paper I	History of India A.D. 1526 - 1757
Paper II	Modern Indian History A.D. 1757 – 1947
Paper III	History of Modern Europe (1789-1945)
Paper IV	History Andhradesa from A.D. 1000 to 1724
Paper V	Historiography and Historical Method

III-Semester

Paper I	Economic History of India (1206-1526 A.D.)
Paper II	Economic History of India (A.D.1757-1857)
Paper III	Dalit Movements in Colonial India (1800-1950)
Paper IV (a)	Cultural Tourism in India
Paper IV (b)	Principles of Archaeology
Paper IV (c)	Art and Architecture of Andhradesa
Paper V (a)	Buddhist Studies
Paper V (b)	History of Medieval Deccan (A.D.1347-1687)
Paper V (c)	Social History of South India A.D. 1336-1687.

IV –Semester

Paper I	Economic History of India (1500-1765)
Paper II	Economic History of India (1857-1964)
Paper III	Tribal and Peasant Movements in Colonial India, (1860-1950)
Paper IV (a)	History of Hyderabad State (1724-1948)
Paper IV (b)	History of Science and Technology in Modern India (1800-1947)
Paper IV (c)	History of Contemporary India (1947-1990 A.D.)
Paper V (a)	Folk and Tribal Cultures of Andhra Pradesh
Paper V (b)	Women Movement in Colonial India (1800-1950)
Paper V (c)	Working Class Movements in Colonial India (A.D. 1850-1900)