4.2 UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

1. INTRODUCTION

Kakatiya University, Warangal was established in 1976 by upgrading the then P.G. Centre of the Osmania University originally started in 1967. The main objective behind the establishment of this University was to provide educational facilities to the people of Northern Telangana, a backward region of Andhra Pradesh.

From 1967 to 1982, books were acquired by the University Library but maintained in the respective departments. (i.e., issuing and maintenance). It was on 18th November 1967 that the first book was entered in the annals of library records.

Having felt the need for establishing a University Library for optimum utilization of library collection, University Library Building was constructed during the period of Prof. K. Venkat Ramaiah, the first Vice-Chancellor of Kakatiya University widely considered the architect of the University. The building was inaugurated in the year 1982.

Subsequently, the collection of erstwhile departmental libraries was pooled and open access system introduced in place of closed access system. The prime function of the University Library is to provide study and research facilities to the Students, Research Scholars and Faculty members of the University. The Library, which was started with this humble aim, made rapid strides over the years and has grown into the present University Library. It is one of the big libraries in this area catering to the needs of the students and scholars of not only the University Campus but also of all colleges under Kakatiya University jurisdiction.

The University Library was centralized in the year 1982. After centralization the University Library has taken up various library services in view of the growing needs of the library and demands of users, several sections have been created to facilitate proper organization and maintenance of the library.

The library functions throughout the year barring festival holidays. During all working days the library operates in three shifts from 8.00 a.m. to 8.00 p.m. and on Sundays and Second Saturdays from 10.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. to cater to the needs of the users. During the examination time the library hours are extended up to 12.00 p.m. late nights. On an average per day 300 users avail the library facilities.
