Prof. T. Papi Reddy, Chairman, TSCHE addressing INSPIRE 2014

INSPIRE 2014

Dr. G. Narahari Sastry
Deputy Directory of IICT

Kakatiya University organized the five day Internship Science Camp INSPIRE 2014 for Intermediate students from August 20-24, 2014. This is the third year in a row that the university conducted this programme sponsored by the DST, Govt. of India. Addressing the students at the inaugural ceremony as chief guest Prof. T. Papi Reddy, Chairman, Telangna State Council of Higher Education exhorted the students to develop interest in research which is the key for development of the country. He further said that research in basic sciences is of much significance. A lot of preference is given to research in life/basic sciences in European countries, he noted. Most of the students opting for Engineering and Medicine courses is not desirable as there are many courses with ample job opportunities. Programmes like INSPIRE are intended to inculcate the spirit of research in students. He advised the students to set goals and strive to achieve them. Delivering the keynote address Bhatnagar Awardee and Deputy Directory of IICT Dr. G. Narahari Sastry advised the students to be creative in their approach and work with determination to achieve the set goals. Students should read about the heroes of Indian Science who excelled in their chosen fields taking them as role models to come up in life, he added. Incharge Registrar Prof. M.A. Singara Charya, Programme Coordinator Prof. M. Krishna Reddy, Prof. N. Rama Swamy, Prof. A. Sadanandam, Prof. M. Swamy, Dr. V. Shamitha and about 150 students took part in the INSPIRE programme.

Prof.B. Janardhan Rao Memorial Lecture

The 12th Annual Prof. B. Janardhan Rao Memorial Lecture was held on August 23, 2014 in the Senate Hall of the University. Delivering the lecture on "New Telangana - A People's Resolve" Prof. M. Kodandaram, TJAC Chairman said that the Telangana Movement has drastically changed the viewpoint of scholars towards regionalism. Regional movements are usually considered as threat to national integrity. But the Telangana Statehood movement has brought a totally different perspective towards nationalism. It has risen above the conventional definitions of regionalism, he said. He pointed out that an alternate development agenda unique to the region has emerged in the process of fighting for separate state. Incharge Registrar of the University Prof. M.A. Singara Charya presided over the programme and Professors K. Sitarama Rao, C. Sivarama Krishna Rao, Prof. B. Revathi, Prof. K. Kaloji Endowment Lecture

Justice B. Sudershan Reddy

The First Endowment Lecture in memory of Padma Vibhushan Kaloji Narayana Rao was organized on September 17, 2014. Supreme Court former Judge Justice B. Sudershan Reddy spoke on the topic "Kaloji and Democracy" in the Senate Hall of the University. Justice Sudershan Reddy observed that there were many similarities between Kaloji and Gandhi in terms of ideology and writings as both kept themselves away from all kinds of political and ideological affiliations. He explained that Kaloji has written only for people and he believed that the human rights upheld by the constitution were natural rights of people. Justice Sudershan Reddy described Kaloji as a great humanist who fought for equality of all and always fought against exploitation. He wanted the people and the government to learn from the life and works of the great poet. Prof. M.V. Ranga Rao, Incharge Registrar, Prof. N. Rama Swamy, K. Damoda Rao, Kaloji Foundation office bearers Nagilla Rama Sastry, Potlapalli Srinivasa Rao, Dr. Ampashayya Naveen and others were present.
