English Department celebrates its Golden Jubilee

The English Department of Kakatiya University, established in 1967 in the erstwhile PG Centre of Osmania University, completed its glorious fifty years. To mark the occasion, an alumni meet was organized on January 31, 2017. 300 alumni members assembled in the Senate Hall of the University. Telangana Legislative Assembly Speaker Sri Sirikonda Madhusudana Chary, who was also an alumnus of the Department, participated as the Chief Guest. Speaking on the occasion, he recalled his campus days. He revealed that the campus life has shaped his life. He regarded universities as the temples of modern India. He wished that abundant youth power in the country was to be utilized for development. Giving a detailed account of the Head of the Department K. Damodar Rao said that during the last fifty years, the Department made long strides in its development. To its credit it has been publishing a research journal, Kakatiya Journal of English Studies (KJES), continuously for the last forty years. It has brought out special issues on Rabindranath Tagore, Mulk Raj Anand and others. Former students wished the alumni meet to be an annual event. On this occasion, retired teachers of the Department Prof. K. Indrasena Reddy, Prof. P. Mallikarjuna Rao, Prof. M. Rajagopalachari, Prof. J. Yellaiah were felicitated in a befitting manner.
