

Programme outcomes (POs)

1. To develop fundamental understanding of the behavioral phenomenon of why individuals behave in a certain way and not the other.
2. To impart behavioral inferential skills to predict human behavior in any context
3. To train to intervene through counselling, therapy and training to address behavioral problems or to develop effective behavioral practices

Programme Specific outcomes (PSOs)

1. To develop understanding skills and inferential skills
2. To impart assessing and diagnostic skills
3. To coach counselling skills
4. To train in individual and group training and developmental skills

Course outcomes

1. Professionally develop in rendering psychological services
2. Become professional psychologist capable of assessing, diagnosing and provide appropriate psychological interventions at the personal, professional and societal level
3. Develop assessment competency, diagnostic competency, and research competency
4. Enable students to reflect on their interest and aptitudes to become developmental psychologists, health psychologists, social psychologists, personality psychologists, industrial/organizational/human resources psychologists, psychological counsellors, experimental psychologists, consumer behavioral analyst, cognitive psychologist, psychotherapist, school counsellor, life coaches, research scientist, etc

5. To follow ethical principles in their life and career
6. Develop inquisitive abilities to know the reasons behind the behavioral phenomenon
7. Make aware of responsibilities to society and the specific communities in which they live
8. To use scientific reasoning to interpret the human behavior