Sir/Madam

I am directed to draw your attention to the letters under reference cited wherein the Commissioner of BC Welfare Departments T.S., Hyderabad has issued instruction that, the Colleges / Managements and Principals, shall not collect the Tuition Fee (RTF). Special Fee, not hold Original Certificates and Exam Hall Tickets of poor BC & EBC students who are eligible for Fee Reimbursement renewal as well as fresh students as per Government rules issued time to time, failing which necessary steps will be taken against the college Managements / Principals for Blacklisting the concerned colleges from scholarships scheme.

Further, the Commissioner of BC Welfare, TS., Hyderabad noticed that certain colleges Managements / Principals are insisting the poor BC & EBC Students for payment of Tuition Fee (RTF) and not allowing them to write exams and also not issuing certificates to passed out students which is against Government rules. The Department will reimburse the Tuition fee to the Colleges. Managements concerned as per the eligibility.

In view of the above, all the College Principals and Management are directed not to collect the Tuition Fee (RTF) Special Fee, not to hold Original Certificates and Exam Hall Tickets of poor BC & EBC students who are eligible for Fee Reimbursement renewal as well as fresh students "Hard Copy Received by District Officer" without fail. Any deviation from the instruction of the Government will warrant action under C.C. A. rules. The University will initiate action against the Institutions who are erroneously insisting the student for payment of fee in deviation of the above instructions.

Yours faithfully,

REGISTRAR
