Article 16(4): Equality of opportunity, Article 335: The claims of the member of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes shall be taken into consideration, consistently, with the maintenance of efficiency of administration in the making of appointments to services and posts in connection with the affairs of the Union or of a State. The SC-ST Cell, Kakatiya University was established in 1985 to focus on the welfare of SC, ST students, research scholars and employees. SC-ST Cell also focuses to remove difficulties experienced by SC, ST students and to maintain an environment where all communities can participate without any discrimination.

About the Seminar :

Longest written charter of the world, the Constitution of India embodies the principles, ideals of nation's governance structure. The epitome of the legal excellence, it guides the country's legal and political systems for good governance to reach the sustainability. The constitution is a set of rules and regulations guiding the administration of a country. The Constitution is the backbone of democratic and secular fabric of India. After the Independence from intruders there was the need of the Constitution. The constitution was framed by the Constituent Assembly. Dr. Bhim Rao Ramji Ambedkar, the chairman of its drafting committee, is considered as the chief architect of the Indian Constitution. Under the chairmanship of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Indian Constitution was drafted in 2 years 11 months 18 days. On 26th November 1949 the constituent assembly of India adopted the constitution which came into effect from 26th January 1950. To commemorate the adoption of Constitution, 26 November is celebrated as Constitution Day or Samvidhan Diwas or National Law Day.

The Indian Constitution is the longest written constitution in the world, provides a comprehensive framework to guide and govern the country. The original text of the Constitution contained 395 Articles in 22 parts and 8 schedules. Now it has 448 Articles in 25 parts and 12 schedules with 106 amendments. The Preamble of Constitution enshrines India a Sovereign, Socialist, Secular, Democratic and Republic which is to secure justice, liberty and equality for the people, for promoting fraternity, dignity of the individual and unity and integrity of the nation. There are 106 amendments so far. After the arose of Kesavananda Bharati case, Supreme Court upheld that the Preamble can be amended, subject to the condition that no amendment is done to the fundamental features. Fundamental features of the Constitution as contained in the Preamble cannot be altered by an amendment under Article 368.
