It gives me immense pleasure to inform that Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Kakatiya University, Warangal is organizing an 'Orientation Programme for Young Teachers from Universities in Telangana State' during 15th -22nd December, 2014. The aim of this programme is to improve overall professional skills in teaching and research keeping in view the requirements for the development of the newly formed state of Telangana. To provide a direction in life to the student community, it is essential for teacher to have maximum knowledge of cultural, socio-economic, scientific and technological history of the country in general and state in particular. The knowledge about the present condition and the future challenges of the state is also essential to plan the programmes offered by the university and to produce the required human resources.

All the teachers in regular service from all the universities and colleges (Govt. And Aided) in the state of Telangana are eligible to attend the programme. The 100 % attendance is a must during the course.

All the participants should submit their request in the prescribed application form forwarded through their employer. Selection will be informed.

This programme will comprise the lectures and interaction with the eminent academicians from diversified fields that are essential to enhance the vision and strategies for improved teaching in Institutes of Higher Learning.

Registration Fee:

Registration fee of Rs. 500/- is to be paid by all the participants either through DD or at the registration desk on the inauguration day. No T.A/D.A will be paid.

Last date of receipt of filled in application form:

30th November, 2014.

Intimation of selection :

05th December, 2014.
